

Date
10.07.2023Declaration of compliance
Data protection declaration

LINNEMANN GmbH takes the protection of personal data very seriously. We treat personal data - if collected at all - confidentially and in accordance with the statutory data protection regulations EU-DSGVO Regulation (EU) 2016/679.

Data Protection Officer: Appointed is Mr. Kretschmar, of the company IT Services Dr. Krejci, Grüner Weg 60, 72766 Reutlingen, Germany.

List of processing activities: The processing activities are recorded as part of the process descriptions.

Data protection commitment of employees: The employees of LINNEMANN who handle personal data have signed the data protection commitment

Duty to provide information and disclosure: Linnemann employees, customers and partners will receive information about any stored personal data upon justified request.

Deletion of data: In accordance with the regulation, data will be deleted immediately after collection, after use or in accordance with the applicable retention regulations, depending on the purpose of use.

Security: All LINNEMANN data is protected against access by unauthorized persons.

Order processing: There is a contract for order data processing with the web hosting provider

Data protection violations: The address for reporting an incident online is known and the report can be made immediately.

Management board

